

THE DEMOCRATIC EDITORIAL CORPUS.

Our editorial corps is not yet fully organized, but we may mention, as among the writers and reporters already secured, Mr. B. W. Hallack, lead of the Journal News Editor; Mr. J. C. Rogers, lead of the Courier, City Editor; Mr. J. M. Hatcher, River Editor. Our commercial department is in good hands, and will be attended to carefully. Every department of the Democrat, however, stands open for itself.

Point of View.

Dan White and John P. Blair were yesterday arrested and lodged in jail on the charge of petit larceny.

Light Docket.

There were only ten cases before the City Court yesterday, which evinces a healthy improvement in our city morals.

The Weather.

The late rain was followed by a cold snap yesterday, which called into requisition winter clothing and coal fires. It was a dull, cloudy, bleak and cheerless day.

Drunk and Disorderly.

Dennis Durson and Chris. Modinger were picked up from Monday night, and the morally "dead drunk" of yesterday, and lodged in the First-street station for the "boys in gray."

Clay-street Station.

There were only two arrests registered last night. One was James Hote, drunk and disorderly, and the other was a man named George Newman, who was picked up as a vagrant.

Re-arrested.

Two young men named White and Blair, who were tried and acquitted by the Circuit Court yesterday, were re-arrested and lodged in jail, through some mistake, up to a late stage.

Travel through the City.

The "afternoon" of the city have been rather slimly patronized by a couple of weeks past, and travel has greatly fallen off. Business is reported very dull in all branches of trade.

New Route Agent.

Col. C. C. Green has been appointed route agent between this city and Henderson by the Postoffice Department. The selection is a good one and will give satisfaction to the department and public.

Arrested on a Capital.

Richard Hall, another delinquent who ignored the summons of the municipal justice, and played the role of "Shogun" in the city, was captured by the police yesterday, and consigned to the First-street station.

A Good Idea.

We noticed yesterday that the Clerk of the Circuit Court read a bill report of the proceedings at the close of the session, which were submitted for approval, or correction. This is a good rule, and it should be adopted in all courts.

Stolen Coin.

Officers Coulter and Kremer last night caught a negro who had in his possession an overcoat, made of heavy cloth, which they supposed to have been stolen. The owner can get it by calling upon these gentlemen at the Twelfth-street stationhouse.

School Matters.

In our report of the meeting of the School Board on Monday night, we erroneously stated that Mr. Morris took part in the discussion and favored the one session system. We should have said Dr. Robinson, from the Seventh ward, instead of Mr. Morris.

A Little Wait.

Mr. J. M. Sade, an excellent city missionary, wishes to find a permanent home for a very pretty and healthy little girl, eight years old. Any good family in need of such a cherub, can call all the information and desire by calling at the residence of Mr. Sade, 135 West Jefferson street.

The New Jail.

The brick masonry progresses slowly on the new jail, yet as fast as could be expected with such a limited number of hands employed. It is to be hoped that the architect and contractor will soon be furnished with the means necessary to prosecute the work to an early completion.

A Shabby Trick.

The Seymour and Johnson, which has waved triumphantly at the corner of Shelby and Green streets, was cut down and carried off last night before its owner could get it. Such petty malice can avail nothing in the city of Louisville, where the citizen enjoys every freedom during the late season.

Circuit Court.

The only case of interest yesterday before this tribunal was that of Robert Sadler, charged with larceny, an account of which we give in another place. To-day Judge Johnson, who was and Jacob Kaufman, for stealing a cow, and Wm. Brown and Wm. Davis, colored, for obtaining money under false pretenses, will come up for trial.

An Unfortunate Pair.

The two young men, Gordon and Webb, who failed to appear before the City Court yesterday morning, to answer the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, turned up about an hour after the court adjourned, and "fell sick" into the yawning jaws of the jail, on a capias for forfeiting their bond. They had but a short time previous awoke from a "Bip Van Winkle sleep" and taken several drinks which "didn't count."

Remotely Acquired.

The young man, John L. Lanthorn, who was arrested on Sunday, charged with attempting to pass a $50 counterfeit Treasury note, was yesterday brought before the United States Commissioner for preliminary examination. He appeared from the evidence that Mr. Lanthorn had the bill in his possession, but made no direct effort to pass it. He showed an excellent character for honesty and moral integrity, and the court discharged him.

The Daily Lager Beer.

The sale of lager beer is daily increasing in our city, and to a great extent supplanting the stronger beverages. The firm of Stein & Doern received a consignment yesterday of twenty-three carloads of barley, measured 10,000 bushels, direct from Canada, to be converted into malt for the manufacture of lager beer. It was selected by Mr. Stein and Mr. John Stein, two practical brewers, who were driven from home by their father and left with the negro, the father of the child. The girl recently returned to the neighborhood in which her father resides, and has brought suit against him for some years' labor performed by her for him when he became of age. The law is in the girl's favor and she will doubtless gain the suit. It is stated that the father compelled the girl to labor in the fields with the negro, and frequently left her and the negro together for days. The result is not to be wondered at.

BRILLIANT WEDDING.

The Walnut-street Baptist Church was the scene of a brilliant wedding last evening. Mr. Aug. Fabel, of the well-known firm of Conrad & Fabel, was united in holy matrimony to Miss W. Good. The happy couple left for Nashville immediately after the ceremony was performed.

Bonds Forfeited.

Wm. Gordon and Martin C. Webb, who were under arrest for being drunk and disorderly, failed to appear before the City Court yesterday, whereupon capias and summons were issued for their apprehension. Such cases occur almost daily, and the parties invariably pay dearly for their delinquency.

Theatre Comique.

A very large audience assembled at the Comique last night. The play, "The Beautiful Queen of Song," is an immense favorite, and her sweet cultivated voice fairly charms the audience, which is also attracted by the tremendous outbursts of applause. "The Beautiful Queen of Song" still holds the boards with triumph.

A Dull and Gloomy Day.

The city was enveloped in gloom yesterday. The heavens were heavily hung with dark clouds, and the streets presented a dull, desolate and forsaken appearance. But few arrests were made by the police, and the amount of unusual interest occurred to furnish the ground-work for a newspaper sensation.

Justice Overbalanced.

In the City Court yesterday, Joseph Clement and George W. Doane, Justices of the Peace, were presented on a writ to show cause why they released Mr. Rosenberg from jail on Sunday last. It appears that these defendants had permitted to bail the above party on the Sabbath, which is contrary to law. This is a point which, if ever established, will work great hardships on all classes, as any person arrested on a writ of habeas corpus on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

On the Rampage.

Pat Bennett and Tony Flynn hired a horse and buggy and rode to the city on Saturday night or Sunday will be compelled to lay in jail until Monday. The case was continued, and we look to the decision with more than ordinary interest.

CURIOUS CASE.

A Victim of "Mental Sympathetic Communication."

A Well-known Citizen the Subject of a Writ de Lunatico Inquirento.

One of the most remarkable cases on record was tried before the Circuit Court yesterday. Mr. Robert Sadler, an old and highly respected citizen, who resides on his farm, about five miles from the city, on the Cane-run road, was arraigned on the charge of lunacy. It appears that Mr. Sadler is a monomaniac on the subject of "sympathetic communication," as he terms it "mental sympathetic communication." For some time past he has been afflicted with imaginary pains or troubles, and his screams could be heard by his neighbors living upwards of thirty miles from him. He is in the enjoyment of excellent health, and is a man of robust and vigorous constitution. He is under the strange hallucination that in every case where any affliction of the mind is concerned, and a person who may fall in love with an accident, the pain and suffering is communicated to him, and he suffers as much as the afflicted party.

The neighbors who were subpoenaed as witnesses in the case, testified that an intelligent, industrious and perfectly rational man, with the exception of this strange notion which prevails with him, and has worked much trouble in the neighborhood. If one of his neighbors should be afflicted with "sympathetic communication," upon the person, and accuses him or her of being the author of his pain. At times his screams are distressing, and he refuses to be comforted, and he is suffering the pain of another.

When the case was called, Judge Bruce appointed Buford Tryman, Esq., as counsel for the accused. Mr. Sadler was brought to the court in a carriage, manifesting a deep interest in the trial. The prosecuting attorney and the counsel for the accused agreed to allow Mr. Sadler to interrogate the witnesses, in order to test the question of his sanity. Mr. Sadler's questions were all well directed, and he handled the witnesses like an old and expert lawyer, eliciting answers in his favor, and at times perplexing them to the point of confusion. He asked questions of the witnesses, and they answered them in his favor, and at times perplexing them to the point of confusion. He asked questions of the witnesses, and they answered them in his favor, and at times perplexing them to the point of confusion.

After all the witnesses had been examined, the Prosecuting Attorney put the accused on the stand, and asked him many questions concerning his peculiar delirium. He answered them all in a rational and intelligent manner, but holding fast to his belief in "mental sympathetic communication."

A young woman named Eunice Fletcher was called to the stand, whether or not he was liable to feel and suffer all the agony of a man in Philadelphia, in affinity with him, who might have a limb amputated, he replied that the distance might break or dissolve the sympathetic communication. He testified that he felt certain that all the pain and suffering would be communicated to him in providing an affinity existed.

He related several cases in which he had been cured of his delirium by curing the city. On one occasion he felt as if his right shoulder was being crushed to atoms, and during the afternoon and night, suffered the most intense agony. On the following day he was cured of his delirium by curing the city. On one occasion he felt as if his right shoulder was being crushed to atoms, and during the afternoon and night, suffered the most intense agony.

On another occasion, he was sitting in a chair, and he felt as if his right leg, and suddenly felt the acute pain in his right leg. He could feel the saw going through the bone, and it was all he could do to suppress his screams.

Again, a neighbor was shot during the war, near his residence, and he felt all the pain of the man who had been killed, and manifested it before knowing anything of the occurrence. This he was cured of by curing the city. He related other similar incidents, some of which pertain to the sympathetic sufferings from women being afflicted, and undergoing operations, and suffering on account of their indelicate character.

Mr. Sadler is an Englishman by birth, and came to this country about twenty-five years ago. He married a beautiful girl in his early youth, and she resided with him and his daughter near the city. He is about fifty-five years of age, and a gentleman of fine personal appearance. He is a man of high culture, and evidently a disciple of Esculapius, if we may judge by the terms he uses in his medical vocabulary. He was examined by Dr. Bell, and that eminent physician believed him to be a person of sound mind, but a monomaniac on the subject of "sympathetic communication."

The case was submitted to the jury without argument, and after having retired for about one hour, they announced that they were unable to agree upon a verdict. This remarkable case stands.

EXTRAORDINARY EXHIBITS OF HONEY BEES.

They Change their Base and Leave their Winter Supply—A Nut for the Voracity of Science.

One of the most remarkable occurrences that has ever come to our knowledge, was witnessed yesterday morning, at James Bell, a farmer, who resides about seven miles from the city, on the river road, has for some time past been engaged extensively in raising honey bees, and with almost unprecedented success.

He has a colony of about forty-five hives of the industrious little "creeps," and to use a homely phrase, they have been playing themselves like Turks and making "slathers" of honey for some time.

A few mornings ago, however, Mr. Bell woke up to find his bees not at home. They had "left out" between two o'clock, leaving no trace whatever of the point or direction in which they had departed. They were not to be seen in the neighborhood, and he was unable to find them. There was no solitary bee left to keep his lonely watch over the forty-five hives. As might be expected, Farmer Bell was left in considerable perplexity. He consulted the authorities at his command in relation to the peculiar habits and freaks of the bee tribe.

After reading through many volumes it occurred to him that some of his neighbors might be able to explain the why and wherefore of this "bounty jumping" move on the part of his army of honey makers. He accordingly made a "bee-line" for the residence of his neighbor, Mr. Greenwood, who is a singular person. To the utter surprise he ascertained that his friend, who is also a "bee-keeper" had met with the same loss in the same sudden manner, and was in the same predicament. They at once proceeded to examine the hives, and it revealed to them the fact that each stand contained from sixty to seventy-five pounds of honey. This development was a great relief to them, and they were able to obtain the honey for further information, and in their rounds, for a circuit of twenty-five miles, they found that every hive had been deserted about the same time, and all of them were left full of honey. They at once proceeded to examine the hives, and it revealed to them the fact that each stand contained from sixty to seventy-five pounds of honey. This development was a great relief to them, and they were able to obtain the honey for further information, and in their rounds, for a circuit of twenty-five miles, they found that every hive had been deserted about the same time, and all of them were left full of honey.

Their investigation was rewarded by the fact that they found that every hive had been deserted about the same time, and all of them were left full of honey. They at once proceeded to examine the hives, and it revealed to them the fact that each stand contained from sixty to seventy-five pounds of honey. This development was a great relief to them, and they were able to obtain the honey for further information, and in their rounds, for a circuit of twenty-five miles, they found that every hive had been deserted about the same time, and all of them were left full of honey.

Their investigation was rewarded by the fact that they found that every hive had been deserted about the same time, and all of them were left full of honey. They at once proceeded to examine the hives, and it revealed to them the fact that each stand contained from sixty to seventy-five pounds of honey. This development was a great relief to them, and they were able to obtain the honey for further information, and in their rounds, for a circuit of twenty-five miles, they found that every hive had been deserted about the same time, and all of them were left full of honey.

Their investigation was rewarded by the fact that they found that every hive had been deserted about the same time, and all of them were left full of honey. They at once proceeded to examine the hives, and it revealed to them the fact that each stand contained from sixty to seventy-five pounds of honey. This development was a great relief to them, and they were able to obtain the honey for further information, and in their rounds, for a circuit of twenty-five miles, they found that every hive had been deserted about the same time, and all of them were left full of honey.

Their investigation was rewarded by the fact that they found that every hive had been deserted about the same time, and all of them were left full of honey. They at once proceeded to examine the hives, and it revealed to them the fact that each stand contained from sixty to seventy-five pounds of honey. This development was a great relief to them, and they were able to obtain the honey for further information, and in their rounds, for a circuit of twenty-five miles, they found that every hive had been deserted about the same time, and all of them were left full of honey.

Their investigation was rewarded by the fact that they found that every hive had been deserted about the same time, and all of them were left full of honey. They at once proceeded to examine the hives, and it revealed to them the fact that each stand contained from sixty

